Brethren: When you have completed this form make as many copies as you need. It is suggested that a copy be given to your spouse, your grown children, any siblings, brothers, sisters, parents or others you believe might be concerned. Please remember that this is not a "will", though in some cases, it might be considered a legal document, and therefore you may wish to attach a copy to your last will and testament. It is, however, an extremely important document to provide some guidelines for completing your final wishes to those you love and leave behind. This document in no way intended to be or convey legal advice or to take the place of a legally drawn will. For proper legal advice always consult your attorney.
